

Duties of the Iranian Rice Importers Association

- Organizing affairs regarding the rice import.
- Obtaining information related to supply and demand, and price and consumption markets in order to provide it to the members.
- Group participation in decision-making and preparing proposals related to the production of relevant goods.
- Establishing relations with banks and credit organizations as well as international financial and monetary organizations within the laws of the Islamic Republic of Iran, with the aim of facilitating and expanding services and financial facilities to members.
- Creating an information bank in the fields related to the goals and tasks of the "Association", and informing members through the creation of an information network and publication of specialized books, magazines and brochures, and exchanging related information.
- Carrying out scientific and research activities related to the mission of "Association" inside and outside the country.
- Sending and receiving trade and marketing delegations to and from foreign countries.
- Coordinating and assisting members for their membership application in specialized, regional and international organizations in connection with the activities of the association.
- Providing consulting services for concluding contracts, memorandums and technical protocols between members of the "Association" and domestic and international institutions.
- Providing professional advice on issues related to commercial procedures and related laws and regulations;
- The provision of continuous and up-to-date information regarding rules and regulations and circulars to members and the association's internal magazine.