

Membership Requirements

- Iranian nationality
- Acceptance and commitment to the implementation of the association's article
- Preparation and submission of a membership application letter on company or individual letterhead
- Submission a copy of the company's articles and a copy of the national ID card and birth certificate of all board members (for legal entities) or a certified copy of the national ID card and birth certificate (for individuals)
- Submission a copy of the establishment announcement in the Official Gazette along with the latest changes announcement (for legal entities)
- Copy of supporting customs documents confirming activity in rice importation
- Submission a certified copy of a commercial card related to one of the chambers of commerce, industries, mines, and agriculture across the country
- Submission a certified copy of the ownership document and registered brand related to rice importation
- Completion and submission of the company and individual information questionnaire
- Payment of the entrance fee and annual membership fee